

David W. Jefferson

DAVID W. JEFFERSON, is the managing general partner of Burdell Management Ltd. and President and Chief Executive Officer of Burdell Properties, which he joined in September 1973. Mr. Jefferson is responsible for the general management for all corporate, vineyard and real estate investment entities. He received an A.B. degree in Economics from Stanford University in 1965, and an M.B.A. degree, emphasizing finance, from Stanford Graduate School of Business in 1967. Mr. Jefferson is a licensed real estate broker in the state of California, and has been a licensed financial principal with the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. He has served as a Director of the Bay Planning Coalition since 1983 and is past Chairman; Director and past President of the Marin Property Owners Association since 1983; Director and Vice Chairman of the McClellan Federal Credit Union from 1968-1987; and Director of the Marin JCC from 1995-1998.

Catherine and Dave, and their entertaining pets, live in the bucolic community of Kenwood, Sonoma County, on the banks of Sonoma Creek. Accordingly, Dave is well acquainted with the multiple jurisdictional matters and riparian rights pertaining to waterways in the State of California.