

Phil Tagami

Over the past 20 years, Phil Tagami has acquired, redeveloped and managed millions of square feet of real estate and has been involved in every facet of the planning, real estate, brokerage and development process. Currently, CCG has joined Prologis in a Joint Venture agreement to redevelop the former Oakland Army Base into a modern logistics facility. Prior to this, Phil provided development services for the City of Oakland's redevelopment agency by overseeing the financing and rehabilitation of the Historic Fox Theater. His past projects include the renovation of the Rotunda Building in Oakland, California and the development of the Rotunda Garage.

Additionally, Phil has been active in local / regional / state politics and policy making, serving on numerous commissions and boards. He has served as an advisor to a number of elected officials. Phil's civic and governmental activities have included: Commissioner for the California State Lottery, Commissioner for California Transportation Commission, Commissioner for Bridge Housing Board of Directors, Commissioner for California State Parks and Recreation Commission, Commissioner for California State World Trade Commission, and President and Commissioner for the Board of Port Commissioners at the Port of Oakland.