About The Symposium

The California Maritime Leadership Symposium (CMLS) is the premier conference focused on all modes of California's maritime transportation system – ports, vessels, highway and rail – and the intricacies, challenges and realities of maintaining and growing a viable, healthy and dynamic maritime economy in the 21st century. Now in its 16th year, the Symposium brings together a diverse group of maritime transportation policymakers, industry leaders, academic researchers and community representatives seek resolution to the growing challenges facing the entire industry.

Underwritten and managed by the California Marine and Intermodal System Advisory Council (CALMITSAC) and sponsored by a broad-based coalition of maritime transportation system stakeholders, associated industry and local, state and federal policy and regulatory agencies, the CMLS offers an unequalled forum for the sharing of views and the education of legislative decision makers and policy implementers.
