Save the date — workshop on contaminants of emerging concern is May 1–2

The State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB) and the Delta Science Program will conduct a two-day workshop on contaminants of emerging concern (CECs) May 1–2 in Sacramento. CECs encompass a vast number of chemicals that are generally unregulated in the United States including pharmaceuticals, flame retardants, pesticides, personal care products, commercial and industrial products, fragrances, hormones, antibiotics, and nanoparticles. The agenda for the workshop is being developed. The May 1 program has a statewide focus and the May 2 program has a Bay-Delta focus. More details are forthcoming. For questions regarding this workshop, contact Michelle.Snapp@waterboards.ca.gov or 916-464-4824.
